

Free of charge

Limited Space

Registration Required

Contact:

Theresa Hiegel
Frederick County
Sheriff's Office
Victim Services Unit
301-600-1290

OR

Email at:
thiegel@frederickcountymd.gov

The Silver Ribbon Series is brought to you in partnership by :

Frederick County Sheriff's Office

The Frederick County Department of Aging

FREDERICK COUNTY Department of Aging

Refreshments offered daily due to generosity of Edenton Retirement Community

EDENTON
25 YEARS & COUNTING!

Silver Ribbon Series

*June 9-June 13, 2014
10 a.m. to 11 a.m.*

*Free sessions offered at the
Frederick County Department of Aging
1440 Taney Ave.
Frederick, MD
21702*

The Silver Ribbon Series

The Silver Ribbon Series is informative sessions based around elder abuse and public safety concerns. Whether you are a caregiver, family member, senior, or supportive member of the community, you probably know a senior who has been a victim of a crime.

Please join us to help raise awareness and assist those we love and support residing within our community.

What is considered Elder Abuse?

- Physical and/or Sexual Abuse
- Neglect
- Self Neglect
- Abandonment
- Exploitations

Invited to attend:

- Frederick County Seniors
- Professionals
- Clergy members
- Community members with a vested interest in the well being of seniors.

Agenda

Monday, June 9th

10-11 a.m.

Battalion Chief Paul "Doug" Wallick and Public Information Officer Lisa Lessin of the Emergency Services Bureau

A call for emergency services is always done in haste. Members of the Emergency Services Bureau will discuss preparation tips to assist in their response. Information will be shared about the Maryland Medical Orders for Life Sustaining Treatment (MOLST) Form which is recognized across a continuum of care and covers options for cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other life-sustaining treatments within the State of Maryland.

Tuesday, June 10th

10-11 a.m.

Presenter Mia Brust, Long Term Care Provider Ombudsman, Frederick County, MD

The Ombudsman Program

Mia Brust, the Long Term Care Ombudsman of Frederick County will discuss key elements of this program that include; helping residents in long term care maintain their legal rights, assisting families with the transition process when a placement occurs and helping consumers understand the differences between Nursing Home and Assisted Living in our community.

Wednesday, June 11th

10-11 a.m.

Presenter Elly Jenkins of the Frederick County Department of Aging

Medicare Scams

Have you been billed for services or supplies you have never received? Has someone contacted you wanting to know your social security number claiming to be a representative for Medicare?

Medicare frauds are on the rise. Don't become a victim. Please join us to gain information on these types of schemes and to learn prevention tips.

Thursday, June 12th

10-11 a.m.

Presenter Cpl. Gregg Warner of the Frederick County Sheriff's Office

Thefts and Frauds Targeting Seniors

Seniors are often unknowingly the target of theft and fraud schemes. These crimes can be prevented. This session will cover ways to protect yourself or loved one.

Friday, June 13th

10-11 a.m.

Presenter Linda Myers, Mental Health Association of Frederick County

Mental Health Issues and Seniors

Mental health issues don't just disappear the older you become. Come hear about general signs and symptoms of common mental health issues. Learn about special concerns facing seniors. As a provider, a case worker, friend, companion or family member, it is important to recognize these issues and know of the resources available in Frederick County, MD, to assist.

